Nine men are under sentence to be hanged in Missouri within the next month.

Senator W. A. Byron of Brookville and others are to speak at Flemingsburg County Court Day in the interest of the American Society of Equity.

At the meeting of the Kentucky Educational Association, being held at Winchester, Prof. D. S. Clinger of this city Tuesday discussed "Needed Legislation." He favors District High Schools instead of the County High School, and favors local taxation so that people will be interested. He believes the law prescribing uniform series of books should be repealed, and that the compulsory educational law should be enforced.

Nominated By Acclamation at Louisville Convention.

Bradley Indorsed For Senator—Very Little Friction in Convention.

Secretary Taft Not Indorsed, But Kentucky's Vote Is For Him—The Platform.

Republican State Convention was called to order yesterday afternoon in the Coliseum, Louisville, at 12:56, by Chairman Ernst of the State Central Committee.

The Convention opened with prayer by Rev. S. S. Waltz. Judge W. H. Holt was presented as temporary Chairman and John T. Craig of Covington temporary Secretary.

Judge Holt made a brief address and was followed by ex-Governor Bradley, who presided over the Convention as permanent Chairman. Bradley lauded Foraker, and when he declared that "Taft was a profound jurist, the great Governor of the Philippine Islands, the splendid Secretary of War, the calm and deliberative statesman," the roof was nearly lifted off the Coliseum and it was several minutes before order could be restored.

TICKET IS NAMED.

Augustus E. Willson of Louisville was nominated for Governor by acclamation.

Senator W. H. Cox of Mason county was nominated for Lieutenant-Governor by acclamation.

The remainder of the ticket as named before the Convention finally adjourned at 2 o'clock this morning, is—

Judge James Brenthitt, Hopkinsville, Attorney-General.

Frank P. James, Harrodsburg, Auditor.

Mrs. H. L. Hamilton is visiting Mrs. Charles N. Bollinger of Lewisburg.

W. J. Rees and family, who have been living in Lexington, have returned to Mason county and are now residing at Mayslick.

Yesterday in trying to spring open a swollen door at the Theaterlup, Messrs. Outten and Ryan jointly, shattered a 28x72 pane of glass—damage, $7.

Mrs. R. E. Stewart, Jr., of Covington, entertained informally yesterday evening in honor of Miss Frances Barbour of this city, who is the guest of Miss Blanche Scariett.

There is a stupendous job for somebody in clearing away the drift gathered mountain high in front of the ice piers. Probably the Government Snagboat will do the work.

Captain Edward Farley, Paducah, Treasurer. Dr. Ben L. Brner, Munfordsville, Secretary of State.

Prof. J. G. Crabbe, Ashland, Superintendent of Public Instruction.

For Clerk of the Court of Appeals, Napier Adams, Somerset; Commissioner of Agriculture, N. T. Rankin, Jackson.

Convention was strong for Taft, but no indorsement was made.

The convention adjourned at 2 o'clock this morning.

THE PLATFORM.

The platform first endorses the policy and commends the honesty and integrity of President Roosevelt, and while not expressing any preference demands that the man nominated by the next National Republican Convention shall be in full accord with his policies.

Second—The platform demands honest elections.

Third—A non partisan state judiciary and a continuation in office of faithful servants.

Fourth—Complete publicity concerning money expended in campaigns.

Fifth—The redistricting of the state.

Sixth—The prompt and efficient enforcement of the criminal laws.

Seventh—The books and vouchers of all public officers and corporations in which the public is a stockholder to be examined and the condition published.

Eighth—Reform in the management of charitable and penal institutions.

Ninth—The platform favors the local option and county unit laws.

Tenth—That the public schools be taken entirely out of politics.

Eleventh—Opposes the nomination of the same candidates by different political parties.

Twelfth—The repeal of the law creating the Kentucky Racing Commission is demanded.

Thirteenth—The platform opposes useless offices and demands the repeal of the law creating them.

If you have an item of news, please call up The Ledger, Telephone 33, and let us have it.

Yesterday Squire Boyer's courtroom was the forum in which oratorical pyrotechnics enlivened the otherwise dull monotony of a forcible detainer suit. Lawyers Cole, Whitaker and O'Donnell did the legal fireworks act.

It is almost a sure thing that the Christian Church will within ninety days be remodeled on the inside and a fine pipe organ added to the Church furniture. As this congregation never does things by halves, we may look for quite a handsome change and improvement when this work is finished. They say this enterprise has been passed up to the ladies of the Church for decision, and it is predicted what they will do is a plenty. Improvements in Maysville go steadily onward in all directions. Just watch us grow.

... HIGH PRAISE ... FOR MAYSVILLE'S DISTINGUISHED AUTHOR.

ENDORSED BY EMINENT
PROFESSORS AND SCHOLARS.

Today one year ago, the initial article by Dr. Thomas E. Pickett of this city on "The Quest for a Lost Race," appeared in the columns of THE PUBLIC LEDGER—the Home-Coming number, June 30th, 1906. On this, the first anniversary of the publication of this important work, it seems fitting and appropriate for THE PUBLIC LEDGER to once more take up the subject matter, at least in a cursory way, for the purpose of calling the attention of the reading public to the cordial reception the work has met with and to the eminent place the volume occupies among the leading minds and libraries of the country.

The book has not only called forth praise from the first litterateurs of the country, but eminent professors in the leading universities of America and medical men of National fame have placed their stamp of approval upon the work and at once declare it to be a revelation upon a subject hitherto veiled in doubt and obscurity.

This volume has been issued from the press only a few weeks, and its local popularity is fully attested by the constant demand for the book at the Maysville Public Library.

As only a limited number of copies of the work were issued the demand will be supplied later with a popular edition in condensed form.

The critical "Book Reviewer" of The Courier-Journal devoted two columns to the work, with portraits of the author, Dr. Pickett, and of Dr. Challin, the noted French scholar and traveler, who was a close friend of the author. The Lexington Herald and other representative newspapers, also reviewed the work at length and praised its originality, its style and its unsurpassed logical composition.

One of the most accomplished contributors to the "Lancet-Clinic" (Cincinnati) confirms an estimate written by the Editor of THE LEDGER several weeks ago.

This critique is from the erudite pen of Dr. Thomas C. Minor of Cincinnati, one of the leading doctors of medicine in the West. He thus handsomely compliments Dr. Pickett's work:

(From The Lancet-Clinic, Cincinnati, May 15.)

SAFETY FROM SUNBURN

"Old Sol" makes havoc with fair faces these days and spoils the pleasures of out-door life. A perfect protection from his burning rays is found in

CHENOWETH'S CREAM LOTION.

Its use insures a soft, clear, velvety skin in all sorts of weather. Is immediately absorbed by the skin and gives a delightful sense of freshness and coolness. It is not a bleach, nor a greasy, sticky "mess," but a healing and soothing preparation for the skin. Applied before going out of doors it prevents tan, sunburn and freckles.

Rings Round Eyes

The ill's peculiar to women, take different forms. Some ladies suffer, every month, from dark rings round their eyes, blotches on their skin and tired feeling. Others suffer agonies of pain, that words can hardly express. Whatever the symptoms, remember there is one medicine that will go beyond mere symptoms, and act on the cause of their troubles, the weakened womanly organs.

Wine of Cardui

Mrs. M. C. Austin, of Memphis, Tenn., writes: "For five (5) years I suffered with every symptom of female disease, but after using the well-known Cardui Home Treatment, I was entirely well."

METHODIST INSTITUTE

Continues at Third Street Church—Subjects of Absorbing Interest. Lecture Tonight

The interest in the Institute at the Third Street Methodist Church yesterday took the form of enthusiasm. The discussions were of the highest order and questions and answers ran rapidly, bringing with them valuable information and helpful suggestions.

The two lectures by Dr. Morris were of the very best. Each one was a philosophic and scientific presentation of the subjects in hand. At 11 o'clock his subject was "The Secret of Personal Magnetism." Upon this he said: "Magnetism of a piece of metal is correlating all the dead magnets of that metal; that each molecule of that metal is a magnet within itself but lifeless and ununited with its neighbor. In man there are many magnet powers. In one man there is vital magnetism—the power to throw life and physical action into public speech. In another there is Emotional magnetism—moving a audience to tears. In another there is Intellectual magnetism—the power to stand and step by step lead the auditors to mountain peaks of profound thought and conceptions.

Dr. Wean of Ashland, Dr. Hanford of Augusta and Dr. Jolly of Vanceburg, led out in the discussions, and many took part in the same.

The work of today is divided into two subjects. For this morning it was the Fourfold Ministry of the Church—to Men, to Women, to Young People and to the Children. At 11 o'clock Dr. Morris gave one of his peerless lectures.

This afternoon "Educational Institutions" will be the subject of discussion, Drs. Walsh, Shepherd, Dover and Jolly will be heard. General discussion will follow.

Mr. Muse sang an effective solo. The congregational singing was inspiring.

The Institute will close tonight with a stereopticon lecture on Mammoth Cave, given by Dr. W. W. Ranshaw of Covington. This lecture will be free to all and comes highly recommended by those who have seen and heard it. The lecture will begin at 7:30. Everybody is invited.

All matter for publication must be handed in before 9 o'clock a. m.

Miss Elizabeth Clinkinbeard Member of Stock Company

Many in this city remember Miss Elizabeth Clinkinbeard, formerly of Mayville, but now residing at Columbus, Ohio.

Together with a fine likeness The Ohio State Journal of a recent date says—

Columbus will be represented in the company that will surround Miss Amelia Bingham when she begins her brief stock engagement at Olentangy park, later in this month. Miss Elizabeth Clinkinbeard, a young lady but two years out of her high school—where, by the way, she distinguished herself in dramatic exercises—will be that member. She will probably play ingenue roles.

Miss Clinkinbeard, with her mother and sisters, lives in the East Side where she is at home. In August 1905, after graduating from East High School, she became a member of the chorus of the company presenting "Peggy from Paris." Her next work was in "Cape Cod Folks," where through sudden illness she was called upon to play an important role during the New York engagement. Then she toured the South in a comedy entitled "It's All Your Fault." Later, in the past season, she was asked to take a part with Kathryn Osterman in "The Girl Who Looks Like Me," and it was because of her success there that she was asked to join J. J. Rosenthal's summer stock in Toledo. She has just concluded a week with them, at that point, and now awaits rehearsal here with Miss Bingham, who after her local engagement will also play in Toledo.

Miss Clinkinbeard's first love is music, but she does not feel strong enough to keep up the musical comedy work. She studies voice continually and hopes ultimately to take up concert work.

James T. Kackley and Thomas Gray, together with their Sunday-school classes are picnicking today.

Dr. and Mrs. R. L. Cooper of Court street, after a ten days visit with relatives and friends in Brown county, O., returned home yesterday. The Doctor is the picture of health and as brown as a berry.

The game of base ball at Flemingsburg yesterday between Mayville and the home team resulted a victory for the former by a score of 6 to 1. Haucke, Mayville's crack pitcher, struck out 17 men, rather a remarkable feat.

Mrs. Edward Fitzgerald of Covington, accompanied by her son, Mr. Harry Fitzgerald, are visiting the former's brother, Mr. Henry J. Shea and family. Mr. Fitzgerald is a student at St. Xavier's College St. Louis, Mo., studying for the Priesthood, and this is his first visit to his parents in seven years. They will return to Covington the latter part of this week.

MATRIMONIAL MIX-UP
In 'Squire Pickrell's Court—Rows, Rumpuses and Arrests But Cupid Got There O. K.

There was blue snipshooting floating in the air about the vicinity of Court street Tuesday all on account of Love's Labor Lost—so far as the irate mamma was concerned, at least.

The beginning dates back a year ago when Matt Bryan first "set" eyes on pretty Francis Litsinger of the Minerva neighborhood and began wooing the huxom and comely country lass in regular Romeo fashion, which finally culminated in an elopement and marriage.

Three months ago Frances left the parental roof and went to live in Ripley, where at stated periods the enamored swain paid court.

The mother soon dropping onto the game visited the Ohio village and brought her daughter back home.

An arrangement in the meantime had evidently been agreed upon by the young lovers to enter into a haven of conjugal bliss.

"Two souls with but a single thought
Two hearts that beat as one."

Or something to that effect. Anyhow they had made up their mind to join hearts and hands for better or worse until death doth them part, as the Parson puts it.

In order to carry out the pre-arranged plan last Friday morning at daybreak Frances gathered up her good clothes and sought the home of her intended husband: from there she went to the home of a Mr. DeAtley and remained until Saturday, when she was joined by Bryan, and the two visited Brooksville for the purpose of being married.

Being unsuccessful they went to a Mr. Vaughan's where they remained Monday night.

Tuesday morning they crossed over into Ohio and were married at Georgetown, returning to the home of Mr. DeAtley where they since have remained.

All of which proceedings were without the consent and wish of the mother of the girl, who was decidedly averse to the marriage.

Tuesday Mrs. Litsinger came to the city and swore out a warrant in 'Squire Pickrell's Court against Bryan and DeAtley charging them with detaining the young bride against her will.

Young Mrs. Bryan on the witness stand denied the allegation and defied the "allegator" that she was not detained against her will and what she did was a voluntary act on her part. Upon hearing the above admission the Court on motion of the County Attorney dismissed the case.

The turn of affairs greatly incensed the parents of Mrs. Bryan, who immediately swore out a warrant charging DeAtley with pointing a deadly weapon at the person of Mrs. Litsinger in a threatening and dangerous manner.

This case is yet to be heard and in the meantime love still rules the Court.

A great many swarms of bees are passing over head in the country these days, a great loss to their owners.

Miss Jennie Q. Alexander died of tuberculosis at her home at Hilltop, Fleming county, aged 21.

The Board of Trustees of the Flemingsburg Graded High School elected a full corps of teachers, with Prof. W. G. Hart Principal. Among the new instructors are Donald McQueen, from Shelbyville, Tenn., and E. W. Gibson of Shelbyville, Ky.

OVERTAXED
Hundreds of Maysville Readers Know What It Means

The kidneys are overtaxed; Have too much to do. They tell about it in many aches and pains—Backache, sidesache, headache, Early symptoms of kidney ills. Urinary troubles, diabetes, Bright's disease follow.

A Maysville citizen tells here a certain cure. Mrs. Lizzie Burns, living on the Blno Run Turnpike, West End, Maysville, Ky., says; "My opinion of Doan's Kidney Pills which I expressed through our newspapers in the spring of 1900 has not altered. I value this preparation more highly today than I did when I gave my first testimonial. Before I got Doan's Kidney Pills I was troubled with severe spells of backache and kidney complaint which came on every few months, and there were times when I was confined to my bed and rendered almost helpless. The quick and decided benefit I received from Doan's Kidney Pills was wonderful. I have noticed slight returns of backache since, but an appeal to Doan's Kidney Pills never failed to quickly and positively check the trouble. In every case I know among my friends when Doan's Kidney Pills have been used the results have always been satisfactory.
